

Round Table Sessions - Friday, August 2

Presenter	Name of Session	Description	Table Number
Jennifer Bezzeg FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Perry High School bezzegj@perry-lake.org	Fundraising in FCCLA	FCCLA - How do you gain funds to support your student organization? Come visit this information roundtable to gain a few ideas to stick into your pocket and try this coming school year.	1
Sue Cudworth FCS Teacher Kimpton MS/Stow Munroe Falls Schools st_cudworth@smfcsd.org	Roll for Your Goals	Are you up for a challenge? Need a game to discuss goal setting? Come check out a dice game adapted from a Take Charge America activity to help students realize how important goal setting can be. How can this activity be used to inspire students to develop a "bucket list" to be completed before graduation?	2
Karen Curry FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser New Lexington High School Karen.curry@nlpanthers.org	SMORE – digital newsletter	Communication with parents using SMORE, a newsletter to use with parents.	3
Mary Jean Gosnell FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Northeastern High School maryjeangosnell@nelsd.org	Basic Interior Design Activities	Working with Color Schemes Extra Credit - Elements and Principles Business Card Assignment	4
Kelly Jung FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Shelby HS jung.kelly@staff.shelbyk12.org	Chopped Competition - Final Assessment	Looking for a great final skill assessment for Culinary Fundamentals? Come get all the resources to hold your very own Chopped competition in your classroom.	5
Cheryl Kies FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Upper Valley CC/Troy High School Kies-c@troy.k12.oh.us	Student Led Global Foods Project	Great project to implement towards the beginning of Global Foods. Each kitchen group is assigned to a country. Learn about the project details, amount of class time needed, and how to grade the projects. My students love it because they take pride and ownership in their learning and I love it because each kitchen group teaches for a day!	6
Mary Jo Kohl Ohio Dept. of Education Program Specialist	Ask the Burning Questions -FCCLA, E&T, H&T	Greet your ODE Consultant and ask that most important FCCLA< E&T, or H&T related question! Get the information you need to understand, move forward, improve, rest assured...to be sure you and your program are on track.	7
Cindy McKay USEP-OHIO, Inc. clifmckay@msn.com	Hacks for Survival in Today's World - Knowledge you can't live without!	How to get into students heads and learn? Let them explore independently through key critical topics. How to Use today's issues to open doors that offer key learning/ information they need to survive in today's world! Use a simple tool to explore and stretch their minds and attitudes, then share it with the school community and get the attention you need for your program recognition and hacks for living in today's competitive educational environment.	8
Mandy Monaco Ohio Department of Education Program Specialist, FCS	Ask the Burning Questions - FCS	Greet your ODE Consultant and ask that most important FCS-related question! Get the information you need to understand, move forward, improve, rest assured...to be sure you and your program are on track.	9
Marcia Osenga E&T Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Vantage Career Center osenga.m@vantagecareercenter.com	Puppetry!	ECE end of chapter test idea. Making a puppet that best describes yourself. New twist instead of making a puppet to go along with a book. I had students create a puppet to describe their personality.	10
Kathy Ream FCS Teacher Circleville High School kathy.ream@cvcsd.com	Tried & True Recipes That Work in Food Science	recipes to help make your food science experiments a success. tried-and-true so you don't have to	11
Cathy Jo Reynolds FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Northwest H.S. cathy.reynolds@nwmohawks.org	7 Habits of Highly Effective Teens in the classroom	The 7 Habits for Highly Effective Teens book is a great resource that can be used in some form in all FCS classes. Communication, setting goals, problem solving, teamwork and personal development are lessons that are covered. Each of these fit in many of our standards in every class we offer. Find out how the book was used in the Leadership course and get	12

		some ideas of how to use it in other courses. Resources used with the book will also be shared through Google Drive.
Kay-Lynne Schaller FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Penta CC/Anthony Wayne schools kschaller@anthonywayneschools.org	Ideas for the FCS Outcome 3.7: "Sustainable Food Practices" by gardening in the classroom	Presenter has worked gardening into the classroom for the last 4 years and has ideas and resources to share to save you time in research and development if you'd like to begin gardening in the classroom. This will satisfy Outcome 3.7 "Sustainable Food Practices" in selected Food classes.	13
Natalie Schoen FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Bellevue HS Schoen.natalie@gmail.com	Tips and Tricks for Teaching Dining Etiquette	Have you ever asked yourself, "How do I make dining etiquette fun and engaging for my students?" If you have, this is the right place for you! This roundtable features several ideas on how to approach the idea and engage students throughout the lesson. This roundtable is suitable for those who teach courses that feature standard 3.6. Dining Etiquette	14
Kristen Shingleton FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Coshocton High School kristen.shingleton@coshoctoncityschools.com	Nutrient Tracking with Cronometer	Learn about a food and exercise tracker, website and app to use in Nutrition and Wellness.	15
Ann Skuse Ohio Dept. of Higher Education askuse@highered.ohio.gov	Understanding the Personal Finance CTAG	This will be a Question and Answer session for participants who are interested in offering the Personal Finance CTAG.	16
Lois Stoll FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Benjamin Logan High School stoll@benjaminlogan.org	10 Tips for a Great School Year!	So much is required of teachers today but 10 simple tips could help take the chaos out and bring sanity to your .school year	17
Alaina Tharp FCS Teacher, FCCLA Adviser Tri-Valley HS atharp@tvschools.org	Can You BREAKOUT?	This Roundtable will showcase several different breakout boxes that can be used in class. Learn how to find materials, set-up, facilitate, and create breakout boxes, both digitally and "old school".	18
Janet Barth Intervention Specialist, Preschool Barberton City Schools janetbarth55@gmail.com	Comparing analogy of child development with planting a seed.	Topics discussed will be bonding, nurturing, and avoiding "failure to thrive".	19